

The American Enterprise Institute and the Legatum Institute Invite you to the London Forum on

THE GLOBAL MARKET MELTDOWN ONE YEAR LATER: THE END OF THE BEGINNING?

Tuesday, September 15th
The May Fair Hotel
Crystal Room Private Entrance
Berkeley Street, Mayfair
London, W1J 8LT

September 15th marks the one-year anniversary of the fall of Lehman Brothers and the escalation from a recession to a global economic crisis of unprecedented scale and scope. A year after the meltdown, what do we know about the causes of the crisis, the various policy remedies that have been attempted, and the way forward? More fundamentally, what is the future of the free enterprise system?

We hope that you can join us for the inaugural London Forum, sponsored by the American Enterprise Institute and the Legatum Institute, in which a collection of leading international thinkers such as Lord Nigel Lawson, Charles Murray, John Micklethwait and others will explore these questions.

Space is limited, so please RSVP to Olivia.Dunigan@legatum.com or at +44 20 7148 5400 by September 1, 2009.

Sincerely,

Arthur Brooks
American Enterprise Institute

William Inboden
Legatum Institute

AGENDA

0800–0845: BREAKFAST

LORD NIGEL LAWSON, Former Chancellor of the Exchequer
"Financial Market Meltdown: Causes and Cures."

0900–1030: ASSESSING THE CAUSES OF THE GLOBAL ECONOMIC CRISIS: WHAT DO WE NOW KNOW? WHAT SHOULD WE DO?

GILLIAN TETT, Financial Times
PETER WALLISON, American Enterprise Institute
LADO GURGENIDZE, Former Prime Minister, Republic of Georgia
RYAN STREETER, Legatum Institute (moderator)

1045–1215: THE FUTURE OF FREE ENTERPRISE: IS IT STILL THE BEST SYSTEM FOR PROSPERITY AND HUMAN FLOURISHING?

ARTHUR BROOKS, American Enterprise Institute
DEEPAK LAL, UCLA and Mont Pelerin Society
CHARLES MURRAY, American Enterprise Institute
JOHN BLUNDELL, Institute for Economic Affairs (moderator)

1230–1345: LUNCH: ECONOMIC LIBERALISM: THE BATTLE AHEAD

JOHN MICKLETHWAIT, The Economist

1400: ADJOURNMENT